

The Human Awareness Institute, known as HAI, was founded in 1968 by Dr. Stan Dale, DHS. Since its inception, HAI has offered a series of workshops dealing with intimate relationships and human sexuality. Over 100,000 people have now experienced the unique work of the Human Awareness Institute.

For many people sexuality is a taboo subject. HAI offers a forum to learn, share and transcend our fears around intimate relationships and our sexual nature.

The workshops are specifically structured to provide a safe experiential environment and create opportunities to share openly and honestly about our experiences.

Participants have the opportunity to get to the roots of their beliefs about love, intimacy and sexuality.

HAI welcomes adults of all sexual orientations, and though the workshops are gender balanced (equal numbers of men and women), no assumptions are made about sexual orientation.

is a Miracle*

*Experience our unique workshops,

Love, Intimacy and Sexuality can be some of the hardest issues to deal with in a relationship. Often our relationships work (or don't), but understanding why is a mystery. HAI workshops offer skills that help you to deal with these sensitive topics with the most important people in your life.

Why attend?

- Experience more love in your life. It's really that simple. No matter how much love you are currently experiencing, our workshops will teach you how to have more.
- Do you keep repeating the same patterns in relationships over and over again and keep hoping for a different result? During the workshop, you will explore and create new ways of being with others that are satisfying and nurturing.
- In a caring, supportive and safe environment, you can discover the ingredients for happy, healthy, loving and intimate relationships. You can shed your fears, release the judgments and disempowering beliefs that keep you separate from others.
- Experience deeper levels of intimacy, greater sense of self-awareness, self-esteem and self-acceptance.

"Love is a Miracle"

"Welcome to The Room of Love." Every 'Love is a Miracle' Workshop begins with this greeting, for love is what the workshops are all about. Love. Learning to fall more deeply in love with ourselves and others. Learning to trust. Discovering how to fully and authentically share who we really are with others. Risking beyond our limitations. Healing past hurtful relationships. Growing. Expanding. Discovering the love you deserve.

It is hard to put words to the magic, power and transformation of these workshops. Participants are profoundly moved by the depth of intimacy that repeatedly occurs throughout the course of a weekend. Just imagine, if you can, a group of people being honest and real with each other. Hear the laughter. Hear cries of pain being released. Watch participants comfort each other. See them cheering for each other. Feel the camaraderie, the love, and the compassion.

The "Love is a Miracle" Workshop brings us back to the simple fact that everyone wants to love and be loved.

This workshop is extraordinary. It is unlike any other seminar or workshop. And it is only the beginning...
